

Is Your Dog a Nuisance?

Your neighbors may think so!

We all love our pets, but we may not love everyone else's when they become a nuisance in our neighborhood.

Lansdowne's animal ordinance is very specific about barking dogs: excessive barking is considered to be unlawful, subject to fines, and a disturbance of the peace to which our neighbors are entitled. This ordinance also provides for the mandatory leashing of dogs, and for the removal of solid waste by every dog owner.

We want pets to be good neighbors, too! Please respect your neighbors, and help keep Lansdowne a pleasant and peaceful place to live and enjoy our pets.

Keep your dogs quiet, on leash, and clean up after them.

For further information on Lansdowne's animal ordinance, please visit the Borough website, www.lansdowneborough.com. To report problems with barking dogs in your neighborhood, call the police at 9-1-1.